

Mechanism Historicized

Critical Reflections on the Early Modern Period

THE A. W. MELLON
DISTINGUISHED LECTURES
IN THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

PRESENTED BY

Domenico (Nico)
Bertoloni Meli

Professor of History and Philosophy of Science
Indiana University, Bloomington

IN COOPERATION WITH

University of Pittsburgh Press
Department of History and Philosophy of Science
World History Center
Humanities Center
Medieval and Renaissance Studies Program
Center for Philosophy of Science

For information, call: (412) 624-5897
or e-mail: jglennox@pitt.edu

LECTURE ONE

Mechanism and Visualization

Andreas Vesalius to Robert Hooke

Monday, March 14, 4 PM
University Club • Lecture Room A
Reception to follow

LECTURE TWO

“The Very Word Mechanism”

A Lexical and Conceptual
Investigation

Wednesday, March 16, 4 PM
Humanities Center
Reception to follow

LECTURE THREE

Framing Mechanisms

Philosophical Perspectives and Investigative Practices

Thursday, March 17, 4 PM
Center for Philosophy of Science
817 CL