

The William Pitt Debating Union and The CS Department Present a

Net Neutrality Debate

PART OF THE COMPUTER SCIENCE DAY'07 EVENTS

Is the End of Free Internet Near?

A Public Debate on Network Neutrality

“Do telecom companies have the right to charge tolls based on data contents?”

Members from both sides will have their say in this timely debate. With special guests:

Art Brodsky

Communications director of Public Knowledge

Hal Singer

President of Criterion Economics

Guy Risko & Michael Mangus

University of Pittsburgh junior debaters

Friday, February 23 @ 2 PM

Sennott Square, Rm 2400

Corner of Forbes & Bouquet St.

<http://www.cs.pitt.edu>