

Pugh, Exercise 1.20 Prove that limits are unique, i.e., if (a_n) is a sequence of real numbers that converges to a real number b and also converges to a real number b' , then $b = b'$.