

The first problem of HW5 (P5.3) would be tedious to do, without using a computer application such as Mathcad or Matlab, or programming in Excel. For this reason, I suggest that you modify the problem to refer to hexatriene, where obviously, you need to consider only three orbitals.

KJ