

CHARGES

THIERRY DE PAUW, INSTITUT DE MATH DE JUSSIEU, PARIS

I will start with a question arising from solving the Poisson equation in a critical case and I will end with a way of measuring the number Lipschitz path components of a compact metric space. The notion that pertains to both problems is that of a charge, i.e. a distribution having a certain continuity property.