

Moral Psychology Research Group
Fall 2007 Meeting Schedule
University of Pittsburgh
Center for Philosophy of Science

Saturday, November 17 (Center for Philosophy of Science)

8:30-9:00 AM: Breakfast at the Center for Philosophy of Science

9:00-10:15 AM: Chandra Sripada (University of Michigan, philosophy & psychiatry) on self-control

10:15-10:30: AM Break

10:30-11:45 AM: Walter P. Sinnott-Armstrong (Dartmouth, philosophy) on "Can Neurological Evidence Help Courts Assess Criminal Responsibility? Lessons from Law and Neuroscience."

11:45 AM-1:00 PM: Lunch, "on own" at local restaurants.

1:30-4:30 PM: Special Guest, George Loewenstein, Dept. of Social and Decision Sciences, Carnegie Mellon University

4:30-4:45 PM: Break

4:45-6:00 PM: Valerie Tiberius (University of Minnesota, philosophy) on "Unpleasant Truths and Well-Being"

7:30 PM: Dinner

Sunday, November 18 (Center for Philosophy of Science)

8:30-9:00 AM: Breakfast at the Center for Philosophy of Science

9:00-10:30 AM: Erica Roedder (NYU, philosophy) and Gil Harman (Princeton, philosophy), on the linguistic analogy

10:30-10:45 AM: Break

10:45 AM-11:45 AM: Maria Merritt (John Hopkins, School of Public Health) on "Ancillary Care in Public Health Intervention Research in Resource-Limited Settings: Researchers' Practices and Decision-Making"